Yesterday, on Monday November 27th, we were hit with an article over at Zerohedge, to reinforce the gaslighting on you about JFK. As usual, just as any controlled opposition outlet would do, the main goal of the article is to sell you the JFK murder as real. Again. We wouldn't expect anything less from CIA front-publication Zerohedge. They have to keep the lie-train going. At any cost. Just for you to doubt yourself.

Let's get the most obvious out of the way shall we? Like this ground breaking article has proven and undoubtedly has shown, is that JFK faked his death. The mainstream media and ALL the alternative media over at Zerohedge, Bitchute and all the others, agree on one thing: JFK was murdered. THAT is what they need you to believe. Whether you believe the mainstream version or the alternative one, they don't care. Very cleverly done. But don't fall for it.

I just want to show you what yesterday's article does do confuse you and gaslight you. It starts with the blatant lie that they need to reinforce on you:

"Why President Kennedy was publicly murdered by the CIA sixty years ago has never been more important."

You see the two assumptions in there? Yes, 'murdered' and 'CIA'. The writer throws in Israel as a potential perpetrator and moans about 'JFK conferences' that need to stop. Yes, the pursuit for the truth must stop according to him. All hogwash.

Then we get a truth: He says that the corporate mainstream media are arms of the CIA and the NSA. Wow! Tell us something we didn't know, but we will make a note of this statement for future reference when it will come in handy. Nice admission Zerohedge and something we will add to our toolbox.

Then we get some cliches as per usual with these bozos at Zerohedge. We get some notion of the 'Cold War' and nuclear weapons. Both hoaxes. We read on. The writer goes on a rant about what is happening in Israel now. Another hoax war. He then gaslights you by claiming to know what RFK, Jr. is thinking:

[...] for RFK, Jr., a very intelligent man, knows that the CIA killed his uncle and father, [...]

Right. He goes on:

Nothing could be further from the truth, for the assassination of JFK is the foundational event of modern American history, the Pandora's box from which many decades of tragedy have sprung.

This is true. It is called Operation Chaos and has nothing to do with JFK. Kennedy was just one of many front guys who faked their deaths and confused the American people into believing fairytales.

Then the articles goes on with known main-stream propaganda, JFK being anti-war and rubbing shoulders with some leftist leaders. The usual blabla we heard for decades.

Then we get more Bay of Pigs hogwash and propaganda about CIA-Agent Fidel Castro and others with the usual historic BS.

We then learn that JFK was an actor all along: In 1963 Kennedy allegedly gave a speech to abolish all nuclear weapons. You have to laugh. Why not just say that Nuclear Weapons are bullshit and that it is all a hoax? No, we have to keep the theater going. They are all in on it.

Then we get the known publication of Jew Carl Bernstein's list of journalists and outlets that are - de facto - CIA front operations. Basically all the big and small ones, which will not come as a surprise to you. Then we get this statement:

[...] the CIA and the MSM are unified [...]

Quite the bombshell for some who might not know this, no?

The article then goes on with argumentation to sell you that JFK was killed, basically by the CIA, which you can read for yourself if you want to. In any case, it is beneficial to study how the intelligence agencies play the polarity of both mainstream and alternative media, to let you believe something they want you to believe, by planting that idea in both sides of the polarity.

Please remember: The truth is above the polarity and is usually the third option.
