As you could have read in my previous paper, Charlie Kirk faked his death. Can you see anything striking in the picture above of the memorial service for Charlie Kirk from yesterday?

That is right, look at all those people. It is amazing how many people fell for the con! What you see is about 100,000 people, but rest assured that billions have fell for the deception around the world.

As I predicted a gigantic shit storm has unfolded that adds more to the chaos, confusion and polarity plaguing the whole world:

- People have been fired from their jobs for speaking the wrong words – it is a precedent for new legislation to erode the free speech in America. Rest assured, the First Amendment still stands, but the perception in the population is that it is ok to be ostracized for speaking out. Both the 'left' and 'right' think in that manner.
- The left is further imploding and the right is exploding in emotional madness. But there is no 'left' or 'right'. Its two wings of the same phoenix that creates division and polarity in every project that it executes.

- The government, represented in president Trump, just has assumed powers that are unconstitutional. Out of the blue, certain organizations are labeled 'terrorist groups' without due legal process. Although Antifa, BLM etc. are Jewish CIA creations and controlled opposition, new ones can easily be created with a new name and the same function: creating chaos in society. They can also easily just be re-labeled keeping the same organization in place. It's not these organizations we have to look at. It is that there is now popular consent that it is ok to label anyone a 'terrorist'. And that is exactly what they are after. Trump does not give a horse ass about these CIA front organizations of Antifa or BLM. He is after restricting the population. He knows Charlie Kirk was a means to and end. He has now all the tools to just use censorship on the population.

And what about Charlie Kirk? Well, as you could have read in my legal section on my website, the fiction Charlie Kirk, i.e. the birth certificate, is proclaimed dead. But the living being that was acting as if he was Charlie Kirk is still alive. Albeit with a new fiction. The living being that was playing Charlie Kirk has a new identity. Perhaps a new look as well. In simple words, he has a new ID card with a new name, birth certificate and address. Living somewhere close to Langley I assume.

That is how agents get re-assigned. They just fake deaths and get a new identity. Their old identities are just stamped off as 'deceased' and that is that. Sometimes their close families are in the know, like the wife of Charlie Kirk, continuing the 'Turning Point' Organization as its new CEO, but that is quite rare. She is 100% in on it.

I want to end with something a bit deeper. There is another effect that has rippled through America that the jokers at the CIA employ often. We have seen it with the JFK faked death, but I also explained it in more detail with my paper on Pim Fortuyn. What this Charlie Kirk project also accomplished was that it traumatized a large portion of the US population.

Millions of people loved Charlie and he was their voice against the insane woke agenda of the 'left'. Through Charlie Kirk, people were still trapped in the dialectic, they were still trapped in the illusion of the opposites. They lost their hero. Trauma is the result. From that comes obedience and cynicism.

People just do not realize that Trump and the woke left, work together for the Jewish global agenda. People are being played. If they are being played, they are ignorant of the real perpetrator. So that real perpetrator stays in hiding, controlling the world from behind the curtains. And the wheel goes on.

The only thing we see is 'bread and games', ruled by deceptions until we finally wake up and see the big picture.
