The alleged 'killing' of George Floyd was 100% faked. Both George Floyd and his alleged killer Derek Chauvin are actors, who played out a planned and staged hoax with the intent to achieve even more social polarity, racial division and the same old Hegelian dialectic of which we are seeing almost daily examples in a variety of news topics in almost every country of the world.

Derek Chauvin has not spent one day in jail and George Floyd is walking around alive somewhere, probably with a different identity.

Yesterday, we were hit with a piece over at ZeroHedge about an interview that Tucker Carlson did with Vince Everett Ellison, author of 'Crime Inc.' In that interview Tucker Carlson is blatantly gaslighting you about George Floyd.

Tucker has done this before, so now it is time for round number two. Tucker is a master at controlling the opposition, telling you things you already know, while sneaking in blatant lies. One way that he likes to do that is to gaslight you right in your face.

How is Tucker gaslighting you? Simple: He tells you the whole story about the killing of George Floyd is a complete lie, but he sells the 'killing' of Floyd as real. This is gaslighting 101 right there. He tells you that Floyd was not killed by asphyxiation or strangulation. Oh no. He was actually killed by the massive amount of fentanyl and nor-fentanyl that was allegedly found in his blood at the time of his alleged 'killing'. Chauvin just took the hit for it. Wow, where did they get those values in Floyd's blood from? A local junkie they found on the street?

Do you see what is happening here? Tucker is selling you that the story was false, which we already know it was false, but sells you Floyd's 'death' as real.

The truth is: Actor George Floyd did not die. Period. He just played his part and vanished off the stage. The whole thing was a faked death, with all kinds of fake trials with actor Derek Chauvin.

In the interview, Vince Everett Ellison takes this new plot twist to new lows by completely politicizing it and by blaming it on:

'orchestrated degradation and victimization within the Black community by political entities, particularly the Democratic party. '

Wow, talking about project Chaos at full steam. So they took a fake story, twisted it to make it even more fake, to then make it so convoluted that your head will spin. Maximum confusion and maximum result. Project chaos at its best. I won't go into the political ramblings of Ellison as it is the usual hogwash and disinformation.

Tucker is giving you even more gaslighting candy, right at the beginning of the interview. He has two other projects that he is selling you as real: the 'COVID pandemic' and the 'war' between Ukraine and Russia. Tucker denies it was a 'pandemic of the un-vaccinated', but conveniently forgets to tell you that millions of people all over the world died of the lethal injections. He denies that Ukraine is winning the war against Russia, but of course conveniently forgets to tell you the war in Ukraine is fake.
